Center for the Arts, Eagle Rock is proud to host Ebbs & Flows; Sea Change and the Family Gathering curated by Steven Irvin. This multimedia exhibition recognizes the limits of presenting an ethnic heritage show within the diverse framework of Los Angeles. Yet Ebbs & Flows suggests new possibilities within this well-worn path through a new examination of the themes of community and family. The show attempts to bridge the gaps within a multicultural city. Rather than focusing on the specifics of the Latino experience, he mines the aspects of Latino culture that, through cultural exchange, is inherent to us all. Center for the Arts, Eagle Rock supports this innovative approach for the Latino heritage month exhibition through the Department of Cultural Affairs.

Selected Artists:

Angela Ortiz, Terry Konrath, Sonia Romero, Ulises Ramirez, Abel Alejandro, Clement Hanami, Sheku Kowai, Femi Dawkins, Santos Vasquez, Ismael de Anda, Melissa Flores, Otonomiyaki (Alan Nakagawa & Kio Griffith).

Center for the Arts, Eagle Rock is a nonprofit 501 © 3 arts programming organization. The mission of the Center is to provide innovative and multicultural arts programming to the communities of North East Los Angeles.
